

San Benito County CattleWomen 2024 Scholarship Requirements for Eligibility

1. The applicant must be a high school senior.
2. The applicant must be accepted by an accredited university, college, or trade school under a program that will help result in a career that supports the agriculture industry.
3. The applicant shall have a grade point average of at least 3.0 for grades 10, 11, and the first half of grade 12.
4. Application package must include:
  - a. SBCCW Scholarship Application
  - b. Copy of applicant's most recent transcript
  - c. A personal essay about your future career goals and how you intend to support the agriculture industry after graduation (500 words or less)
  - d. A list of extra-curricular activities, including community involvement
  - e. A list of work experience (this may include work at home or in the family business)
  - f. Two letters of recommendation
5. Verification of enrollment in an accredited university, college, or trade school must be submitted to claim scholarship.
6. Deadline: Please submit application to the Career Center or directly to the San Benito County CattleWomen at P.O. Box 539, Tres Pinos CA 95075 by March 8, 2024.